“ Dave, I really am lost for words...I'll never forget the day we started hanging out in high school when you came up to me outside the cafeteria and asked me if I would go to prom with your best friend cory king, cuz he was to shy to ask me himself 🙏...anyways me and cory and you and holly slate all went to dinner together and then attended prom!! We had a blast before and after. I'll never forget a the parties we threw at my parents house, and how u would always call my mom, "mom"!!. However, I know there were a few years within the last 10 year that we didnt speak much or see eachother, but I'm glad the last time I seen u, you were happy and being your goofy self. You always made me laugh...and you did the best impression of will Smith in the fresh prince of bel air. We used to watch that show all the time at your moms house. You will always be one of my best friends and I miss you so much already!!. Until we meet again, fly high hun, and watch over your loved ones. Tell my dad I said hi and I love him . Always n forever!!

“ I remember you as a sassy, funny, cute little kid who liked to swindle at the poker table. I remember you as a smart ass teenager. I remember you as you grew into a man and became a dad. I remember you who comforted me and tried to help in anyway you could. I remember laughing til we cried (thrift store date ). We've shared so many memories over the years, some good, some not so good. I will always remember you as not only family, but a friend. Love you
